

NOTICE TO PASSENGERS ON DISRUPTIVE BEHAVIOR

Federal law prohibits physically assaulting or threatening to physically assault aircraft crew or any other individual on an aircraft. Passengers are subject to civil penalties of up to $36,516 for such misconduct.

Additionally, passengers who interfere with the performance of a crewmember's duties by assaulting or intimidating that crewmember are subject to criminal fines, imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both.

While onboard the aircraft, you must follow crewmember instructions, including instructions on wearing face masks. Failure to follow crewmember instructions may violate FAA regulations by interfering with the crewmember's ability to perform his or her duties on the aircraft. The FAA may impose civil penalties of up to $13,910 for such violations.

The failure to wear a face mask while onboard an aircraft also may violate CDC and TSA requirements. Such violations may result in penalties in addition to any assessed by the FAA.
