

Transit Benefit Program Preparation Checklist

1. Login.gov Government Email Address Registration

To submit the TRANServe application, all users must connect their government email address through login.gov to the larger TRANServe system. To view step-by-step instructions on how to link one's work email with TRANServe, please review and follow the instructions within this quick guide

2. Transit Benefit Integrity Training

All applicants must complete the requisite Transit Benefit Integrity Training prior to completing and submitting a transit benefit application. If an applicant does not complete the required training prior to submission, their application will be disapproved, returned to the user, and not processed until the training module is completed.
