

National Human Trafficking Hotline (24/7)

Call: 1-888-373-7888 | Text: 233733

For immediate danger, call 911.

For Supportive Services (24/7): StrongHearts Native Helpline

Call/Text: 1-844-762-8483

Human traffickers recruit, transport, and exploit their victims in Native communities. Victims/traffickers can be of any age, race, ethnicity, sex, ability, nationality, citizenship, or socioeconomic background. ▶▶▶

U.S. Department of Transportation

PUT THE BRAKES ON HUMAN TRAFFICKING

The logo consists of a dark blue rectangular background with a white border. The text "PUT THE BRAKES ON HUMAN TRAFFICKING" is written in white, bold, uppercase letters. The words "PUT THE BRAKES ON" are on the top line, "HUMAN" is on the second line, and "TRAFFICKING" is on the third line. There are horizontal white lines separating the top two lines and the bottom two lines.

Indicators of Human Trafficking

- Controlled movement, identification, money, documents, luggage, and speech
- Signs of physical/emotional distress, abuse, or branding
- Improper clothing for weather or travel route
- May travel with few/no belongings
- Logistically unaware of where they are, where they are going, where they have been, or who is picking them up
- Answers may sound scripted/inconsistent
- May purchase in-person, one-way, last-minute, or same-day tickets
- References frequent travel to other cities or towns
- Signs of struggle, discarded clothing, and/or personal items in construction areas, rail yards, along highways, and transportation hubs

www.transportation.gov/TLAHT/Campaign