Going Green with Electronic Fare Media!

TRANServe has implemented program methodologies to tighten internal controls and support Green Government by moving towards electronic fare media. Launched in 2011, the primary goal of the program is to use a single fare media delivery system that offers enhanced internal controls and preserves the transit benefit by preventing fraud, waste and abuse.

Electronic Method of Distributing Transit Benefit Saves Government Money and Makes Choosing Mass Transit Easier for Federal Employees

WASHINGTON – The U.S. Department of Transportation has introduced an effective and cost-efficient way for government employees to receive their monthly transit benefit through the use of a federal debit card. The transit benefit program encourages federal government employees to choose commuting options that improve air quality and reduce traffic congestion as opposed to using single-occupant

TRANServe administers the Transit Benefit and establishes best practices.

Knowledge Check 4

- Dan plans on teleworking. The correct course of action based on this is:
 - A. Inform his supervisor.
 - B. Continue claiming her transit benefit without change.
 - C. Submit an updated application.

Knowledge Check 4 - Answer

Dan plans on teleworking. The correct course of action based on this is:

- A. Inform his supervisor.
- B. Continue claiming her transit benefit without change.
- C. Submit an updated application.

You are responsible to update your application whenever your commuting method, work schedule or address changes.

Transit Benefit Certification

Certification Required

- Anyone who enrolls in the Transit Benefit Program must certify that certain conditions are true.

Certify:

“To formally and legally attest a specific statement to be true”

Certification Statement

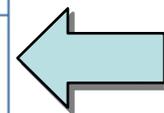

WARNING !

This certification concerns a matter within the jurisdiction of an agency of the United States. Making a false, fictitious, or fraudulent certification may constitute criminal violations punishable under Title 18, United States Code, Section 1001, by imprisonment up to five years and fines up to $10,000 for each offense, and/or agency disciplinary actions up to and including dismissal.

- I certify that I am employed by the U.S. Federal Government.
- I certify that I am not named on a federally subsidized parking permit with any other federal agency.
- I certify that I am eligible for a public transportation fare benefit, will use it for my daily commute to and from work by public transit or vanpool, and will not give, sell, or transfer it to anyone else.
- I certify that in any given month, I will not use the Government-provided transit benefit in excess of the statutory limit. If my commuting costs per month on public transit exceed the month statutory limit, then I will supplement those additional costs with my own funds rather than use a Government-provided transit benefit designated for use in a future month.
- I certify that I will not claim the transit benefit in excess of my actual monthly commuting expense. If at anytime during a given month I am out of work due to sickness, vacation or any other reason, on official travel, or use a private vehicle for commuting, I will claim less and adjust the amount of my transit benefit the following month if appropriate.
- I certify that my parking fees are not included in the computation of the daily, weekly or monthly commuting costs for my transit benefit.
