Popular Title: Flying with Musical Instruments

RIN 2105-AE37

Stage: Final Rule

Previous Stage: None

Abstract: The Department of Transportation is issuing a final rule to implement section 403 of the FAA Modernization and Reform Act of 2012 regarding the carriage of musical instruments as carry-on baggage or checked baggage on commercial passenger flights operated by air carriers. The Department has determined that there is good cause to issue this final rule without notice and an opportunity for public comment as it is incorporating the statutory language virtually verbatim and without interpretation. Public comment is unnecessary as the Department is exercising no discretion to implement this rule.

Prompting action: FAA Modernization and Reform Act

Legal Deadline: 2/14/2014
