ANALYSIS AND DETERMINATION REGARDING OBJECTIONS TO GARNISHMENT

Applicable law:

Federal agencies must follow the procedures outlined by the Department of Treasury when collecting money from a debtor's disposable pay by means of administrative wage garnishment to satisfy delinquent nontax debt owed to the United States. (31 CFR 285.11(a)). As permitted, the Department of Transportation has adopted, by reference, the Department of Treasury's regulations regarding administrative wage garnishment procedures. (49 CFR 89.35). As a general rule, whenever an agency determines that a delinquent debt is owed by an individual, the agency may initiate proceedings administratively to garnish the wages of the delinquent debtor. (31 CFR 285.11(g)).

Determination on the validity and enforceability of the debt:

You objected to the debt or debts described in the notice on the basis that they were not owed and enforceable in the amount stated. You argued in your submission that you do not owe the debt.

According to the administrative record, you owe money associated with advanced annual leave hours and advanced sick leave hours you received resulting in a negative balance the time of resignation.

Based on our review of the record, we conclude that the debt or debts listed in the notice are past due and are valid and enforceable in the amount stated in the notice and in the below Conclusion.

CONCLUSION

DOT has determined that the debt or debts described in the notice are enforceable, in the amount of $2,926.91 in principal and $4,568.52 in debt service fees, administrative costs, penalty and accrued interest, by garnishment at the rate of 15 % of your disposable pay per pay period.

CONSEQUENCES OF THE DECISION

Based on these findings, DOT will order your employer to withhold from your wages 15% of your disposable pay per pay period until the debt determined in the Conclusion is paid in full.

RECONSIDERATION

You may request to have this decision reconsidered based upon the objection(s) you raised here as to the existence, amount, or enforceability of this claim. To obtain reconsideration, you must submit evidence that you did not previously submit that persuades us that we should reconsider our initial decision. We will notify you if we decide to reconsider such decision.

You may also request reconsideration of this decision due to financial hardship. To request either consideration or reconsideration on grounds of financial hardship, you must submit evidence with your request that demonstrates that your financial situation has materially changed since we issued our decision, justifying a reduction in the amount issued under the order. To support a request for reconsideration due to financial hardship, you may request a Financial Disclosure Statement from our customer service representative at: (405) 954-4719 or by mail at AMZ-350, PO Box 25770, Oklahoma City, OK, 73125.

Legal Protection From Employer Adverse Action:

Your employer may not discharge you from employment nor take disciplinary action against you as a result of an Order for Withholding, nor can a prospective employer refuse to employ you as a result of this action or existence of and Order for Withholding.

Limitation Of Scope of Decision:

This determination affects only the debt described in the notice of garnishment, and is separate from any notice of proposed Federal payment offset or garnishment you may have received from a Guarantee Agency. If you received a notice of collection action from a Guarantee Agency, you must present any objections to collection action to that agency.

Sincerely,

Muhan Shyho
